

SCHOOL HOLIDAY CAMPS

January 23rd, 2012

Fabulous Frozen Farm

Cold, snow, and ice don't slow things down on the Farm. There are still lots of farm chores to keep up with and cool ways to have some fun. We will learn what folks in New England have been doing for centuries, to keep busy during the cold winter months. And if the conditions are right we will have fun with sleigh rides and making snow buddies.

February 20th - 24th, 2012

Winter Vacation Camp - Farm Art

A full week of winter fun on the Farm with an artistic twist. Sign up for one day or the entire week.

March 16th, 2012

Maple Sugaring

Celebrate the maple sugaring season with Stonewall Farm! Have you ever wondered how trees make sap, who discovered maple syrup or how to identify a sugar maple tree? Campers will experience this New England tradition first hand from start to sweet finish.

April 16th - 20th, 2012

Spring Vacation Camp - Farm Field Days

Spring in to action with your favorite farm friends - hiking, cooking, games, sheep shearing & llama walks. Sign up for one day or the entire week.

SUMMER CAMP

July 9th to August 17th

Camp at Stonewall Farm is about fun, friends and learning. Our experienced staff enjoy sharing their love of farming and the outdoors. The dairy barn, garden, Learning Center, fields, forest and streams are the perfect place for kids to meet the farm and friends in a safe and enjoyable learning environment.

Many campers come back year after year, building life long attachment to this special place. Programs are age appropriate, ranging from 4 to 14 year olds, and include a counselor-in-training program for 14 and 15 year olds. With six, week long sessions to choose from, farm camp can be an important part of a child's fun, friendly and educational summer.
